Ingredients give to Hood's Sarsaparilla its great curative power—power to cure many and varied complaints, including diseases of the blood, ailments of the stomach, troubles of the kidneys and liver.

Many of the ingredients are just what the profession prescribes in the ailments named, but the combination and proportions are peculiar to this medicine and give it curative power peculiar to itself.

Therefore, there can be no substitute for Hood's. Get it in the usual liquid form, or in tablets called Sarsaparilla.

UNION MAKERS OF

HATS QUIT

Manufacturers Bar Label, and 25,000 Are Ordered on Strike—East Affected.

Newark, N. J., Jan. 16.—The Associated Hat Manufacturers, including every large hat factory in the country, yesterday ordered the union label out of all factories in all parts of the United States, and as a result a record-breaking strike was precipitated.

More than 4,000 members of the United Hat Makers of North America employed in the Orange factories alone left their work as soon as the bosses announced that the union label was not to be placed in hats.

South Norwalk, Conn., Jan. 16.—Seven hundred employees of the Croft & Knapp Co., makers of hats, walked out yesterday morning on refusal of the firm to permit the use of union labels in its product. The plant is practically idle. The Croft & Knapp concern is the largest in this section of the state.

Boston, Jan. 16.—The Guyer Hat company removed to Philadelphia from Boston about five weeks ago in an effort, it is stated, to secure better working conditions. The company occupied a large factory on Northampton street.

The principal difficulty, it is stated, was with reference to the prices demanded by union workmen in certain departments, the company claiming that it was compelled to pay a higher rate than was required for the same class of work in other parts of the country.

It was expected that by removing to Philadelphia satisfactory adjustment could be made, but this was not realized, and the strike followed.

D. F. DAVIS SUCCESSFUL

After a great deal of effort and correspondence D. F. Davis the popular druggist has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. in making special half price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles, that D. F. Davis is willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

So great is the demand for this specific that D. F. Davis has been able to secure only a limited supply, and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon him at once.

ONE DAY ONLY
Wednesday, Jan. 20
City Hotel, Barre.

Office Hours from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m.

We manufacture a pair of glasses as low as $1.00, with a 10-year gold filled frame, which with the examination that we give, cannot be duplicated today by anyone in the optical business.

There is no one today in the United States who fits the eyes the same as we do. If you have ever been fitted to glasses by others, you understand what the test is—how you have to read the letters and tell the optician what you want. We do not fit that way, but take the exact measurements of the eye from the pupil without using any drops, nor do we ask any questions or use test cards hung on the wall.

DON'T SUFFER WITH HEADACHES

We have produced astonishing results from brain fog, nervous debility, insomnia, dizziness, nausea, watery eyes, blurry vision and other troubles caused by eyestrain. We have corrected by the use of glasses cross eyes and astigmatism by our scientific methods.

H. 605, an act to incorporate the First Congregational Church and Society of Orwell.

H. 608, an act to amend No. 241 of the acts of 1904, entitled, "An act to incorporate the village of Poulinville."

Joint resolution relating to compensation of the secretary of civil and military affairs to January 1, 1909.

Joint resolution relating to installation of a telephone for the attorney-general and supreme court.

H. 142, an act to aid the town of Mendon in repairing a certain highway.

H. 209, an act to grant relief to the town of Andover.

H. 317, an act to amend sections 1261, 1267, 1292, 1804, 1807 and 1812 of the public statutes, relating to the trial of cases in county court and the court of chancery.

H. 349, an act to aid the town of Mount Tabor in building highways.

H. 458, an act to aid the town of Sherburne in repairing a certain highway.

Joint resolution requiring the secretary of state to publish certain compilations, bulletins and circulars.

H. 2, an act to amend section 5427 of the public statutes, relating to the appropriation for the laboratory of hygiene, and repealing section 5477 of the public statutes.

S. 15, an act authorizing the attorney-general to employ persons to search for criminals and evidence.

S. 56, an act to amend section 6187 of the public statutes, relating to the salary of the state librarian.

S. 95, an act to amend No. 307 of the acts of 1906, entitled, "An act to provide for a municipal court for the village of Brattleboro."

S. 134, an act to incorporate the North Troy Electric Light and Power company.

S. 136, an act to incorporate the South Ryegate Village Lighting district.

S. 138, an act in amendment of No. 268 of the acts of 1902, entitled, "An act to incorporate the Central Telephone company."

S. 143, an act relating to the powers of the prudential committee of the incorporated school district number 2 of Brattleboro.

S. 149, an act relating to water mains, drains, sewers and sewer outlets outside of city or village limits.

The House yesterday afternoon shortly after dinner passed H. 74, exempting property of old soldiers and their widows from taxation to the extent of $1,000. An amendment was made by the author of the bill, Mr. Bacon of Hartford, making it applicable only to those who had property amounting to less than $2,000. In the original bill the sum mentioned was $3,000. A yeas and nays vote was taken, when Clerk Plumley had to verify before Speaker Cheney announced the result, 100 to 96 in favor of the passage of the bill. One member came in late and asked to have his name called.

Mr. Goodell of Whitehall objected on the ground that he didn't like the idea of sending out to round up members. Later he learned that the member who went out as he supposed to get the absent member was looking up support on another measure and so he wanted to make it right by reconsidering and taking another yeas and nays vote. He voted with the minority so this motion from him was out of order, but Mr. Bacon came to his relief and the House granted the request. Strange as it may seem, the measure was again passed after the tedious roll-call had been waded through again and the vote did not vary much from the first one, although as many as 107 to 98.

The Water Rights Bill.

The great part of the remainder of the afternoon was taken up with the discussion of House 607, which was called up by Mr. Martin of Brookline. This is the bill having reference to the taxation of property condemned by an outside town for public use. An amendment by Mr. Leary to the effect that property so taken should be taxed by the town in which it was located at its value when taken was killed the other day. Then the vote was reconsidered and the bill with the amendment ordered to lie. The bill came into the House yesterday with an amendment from the committee on municipal corporations to the effect that power or water privileges should be taxed at their actual value. It was of considerable importance, as there are many cities which have gone into neighboring towns and taken water privileges or power privileges for their own benefit or for the benefit of their public, and it makes a great difference whether the city developing the water system has to pay to the town where the property is condemned a tax rated according to the value of property when taken or the value when developed for another town. The amendment of the committee finally passed, 123 to 58, and the bill was then ordered to a third reading.

Nearly all the principal speakers in the House had a whack at one side or the other, and there were many more suggestions running at large. Mr. Hitchcock had an amendment which he wanted to put in which exempted taxation from the pipe lines extending to the place where the power was to be used, but he could not put this amendment in unless the committee amendment failed. The two Houses, of St. Johnsbury and Bennington, defended the committee amendment on the ground that it was not fair for a city to step in and deprive a town of valuable water privileges or powers which, if sold to private companies, would be valuable as a taxable piece of property.

The argument was also used that very often when water powers were taken up by private companies the towns were built up on the resulting industries. Mr. Leary contended that when municipal companies went for water privileges they went out to get them for their own cities and that when private industries took water rights they seldom built up the town but simply took the power to larger places. He thought the small towns should not complain if nothing was taken from their grand list. The power simply became valuable to the city taking it, developing it and using it. Mr. Fish spoke in favor of the Leary amendment and Mr. Watson of St. Albans was strongly opposed to the committee amendment.

According to the amendment, which was passed, the value of the water privileges taken is assessed by the town wherein located and there is no appeal except to the board of civil authority of that town. Jones of Sudbury thought that the committee amendment was placing the value of water for commercial purposes before the value for domestic purposes. Mr. Allen of Charleston told of the damage that had been done to his town by Barton coming and taking its valuable water privileges on which it is getting rich and not paying just taxes to the town from which taken.

Innkeepers' Bill Passes Senate.

In the Senate yesterday afternoon the innkeepers' bill passed, 14 to 12, after a long debate. Licensees, according to this bill, of this class can be granted in towns voting "no" upon petition of 25 per cent. of the freeholders. The bill is a strict one, however, and does not allow the sale of liquor to residents of a town in which the license is granted nor residents of surrounding towns. The bill did not have the unanimous support of the temperance committee.

Senator Cory favored the measure, although he said that he had never tasted a glass of beer or whiskey in his life. He believed in allowing the sumner people and people from other towns to have what they wanted and to do so without making them obliged to get it illegally. In reply to Senator Lewis of Lamotte, who asked what about the platform, Mr. Cory said there wasn't any platform now. They threw the plank calling for the exemption of wages to the extent of $10 out the window and the House had thrown down other planks. He said that he had hired the man to the platform for quite a while, but that he was sick of it.

Senators Donaway and Gorham defended the bill on the ground that it was a temperance measure and would result in doing away with license in many of the towns that voted for it simply so their hotels might get the benefit. Senator Bliss opposed those who voted against the measure were Senators Darney, Bliss, Flagg, Croft, Fairbanks, Gross, Huntley, Kidder, Lewis of Lamotte, McLam and Walker. Senator Orvis said that he was a hotel keeper but it was not his bill. He called attention to the fact that the bill was a temperance measure in one respect. It did not allow the sale of liquors on holidays even on the table, whereas the present law allowed that.

Trade Conditions.

New York, Jan. 16.—Dispatches to B. G. Dunn & Co., indicate generally satisfactory trade conditions, although some irregularity is noted, particularly at the South. Confidence in a steady revival of activity, however, is apparent at all points. Boston continues to send in favorable reports on nearly all lines, the activity in print cloths at Fall River being the notable feature of the cotton goods market.

QUESTIONS HIS ACTION

Gaines Doubts Right to Seat In Congress

TO HAVE IT VACANT

He Offers Resolution—Higgins Says Colleague Did Resign—The Resolution Goes to the Committee on Judiciary.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The right of Governor Lilley of Connecticut to retain his seat as a representative in Congress from that state was questioned in the House of Representatives yesterday by Mr. Gaines of Tennessee. Mr. Gaines offered a resolution, as a matter of privilege, declaring that as Mr. Lilley has been elected a member of the House of Representatives of the Sixtieth Congress and, also, had been elected and qualified as governor of Connecticut, his name should be stricken from the roll and that his seat in the House be declared vacant. The majority leader, Mr. Payne of New York, moved the reference of the resolution to the committee on the judiciary. The Tennessee member declared that Governor Lilley's duties as governor were incompatible with those of a member of the House. He cited several precedents in which the House had acted along the lines of his resolution.

In defense of Governor Lilley, Mr. Higgins of Connecticut declared that Mr. Lilley did resign as a member of the House, that he resigned to his predecessor, Governor Woodruff, that he had already qualified as governor, and that he was no longer a member of the House.

Replying to a suggestion by Mr. Henry of Texas that the newspapers had stated that the retiring governor had declined to accept the resignation, Mr. Higgins said there was no law of Connecticut which required the executive to immediately and forthwith call a special election to fill a vacancy. Mr. Payne asserted that the debate had shown conclusively that the judiciary committee was the proper body to consider the question. At the suggestion of Mr. Gaines, Mr. Payne agreed that the committee should be required to report in ten days, and as amended Mr. Payne's motion to refer the resolution to that committee was unanimously adopted.

AROOSTOOK POTATO CROP.

Small Shipments Cause Doubt as to Size of Last Year's Crop.

Houlton, Me., Jan. 16.—The attitude of the potato growers of Aroostook county, the greatest potato producing section in the country, if not in the world, in shipping their product has put the buyers at a quandary as to the probable amount of the crop. Early in the season it was reported that the yield would be greater than that of any previous year, but unless the farmers are holding back a large part of their crop of tubers, there is much doubt among the dealers whether the report will be confirmed. The crop has been estimated by several well-informed men as being anywhere between 18,000,000 and 25,000,000 bushels, yet only 1,811,243 bushels were shipped over the Bangor & Aroostook railroad between Aug. 1 and Dec. 31.

If the producers have not departed from the usual method of shipment and the majority of the season's yield has been accounted for, then it is believed that the crop will fall far short of the amount predicted.

PRESIDENT MAY GO ON A FIFTY MILE WALK

Another Demonstration to Show Naval Officers' Tests Are Easy.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Naval officers who have been going around with grim faces and suppressed kicks over the physical tests ordered by the president, came to the conclusion that they would do their horseback riding, bicycling or walking without saying another word in protest. This state of mind was brought about by the commander-in-chief's 98-mile ride in Virginia, accompanied by a staff officer of the navy, Surgeon General Rixey.

If these officers do in one day more than the physical tests require the naval officers to do in three days, and at that during a sleet storm, the naval officers feel there is nothing more to be said or done except take their tests for individual fitness. To add to their discomfort, Surgeon General Rixey took another ride in Virginia of 25 miles.

It is now said that in order to demonstrate to the officers of the navy that the tests are not too severe, the president contemplates attempting a 30-mile walk in one day.

POPULAR BANK THIEF.

Arrested in Montreal, Is Wanted in Other Cities.

Montreal, Quebec, Jan. 16.—The bank thief, who was arrested here on Tuesday under the name of James Sudeen, and arraigned in court yesterday, pleaded guilty to a half dozen charges brought against him. This man, who is believed to have operated in New York and Boston and have a criminal record in England, managed to defraud several Montreal banks by means of forged checks and drafts. He is also wanted in Ontario. He operated at Niagara Falls, Ont., a year ago, under the name of Harry O. West alias Williams, alias E. A. Brown, and defrauded the Power City Bank out of $500 by the same methods employed here.
